

PIAFFE / PASSAGE TRAINING CLINIC with RENÉ GASSER

Owner and head trainer for El Caballo Blanco – the Dance of the White Stallions

Born in Switzerland, René Gasser has been influenced by some of the best trainers in Europe. He maintains a life long passion for equestrian art and classical horsemanship. René's personal philosophy remains the same; "Ask for a lot. Be content with very little. Reward often".

Join René, for an intimate session where he shows you stages of classical dressage training from young horse to Grand Prix.

There is also an opportunity to bring your own horse for a one on one with René who will assist you with your horse's training and answer any questions you may have on the training of piaffe and passage.
